

Why Chess Consulting

Chess's experts consult and testify on the value and reliability of economic damages assessments in federal and state courts and in other forums. We convey highly technical and complex concepts in straightforward and understandable terms. We apply our problem solving skills and deep industry knowledge in civil and criminal disputes, regulatory proceedings, and other types of disputes.

Lost Earnings – Class Actions

- Retained in a number of matters to assess back pay claims for uncompensated overtime hours worked, involving more than 8,000 federal government employees, pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act, the Customs Officer Pay Reform Act, the Border Patrol Agent Pay Reform Act, and Title V of the United States Code.
- Calculated lost salaries, retirement annuities, survivor annuities, and life insurance benefits in nearly a dozen lawsuits and administrative actions in which more than 3,200 federal judges were retroactively awarded cost of living adjustments blocked by Congress between 1995 and 2010.

Lost Earnings – Individual Actions

- Assessed claims of back pay by a U.S. Postal Service worker due to allegations of gender discrimination.
- Critiqued lost earnings estimates prepared on behalf of over two dozen plaintiffs in wrongful death matters involving airline and private plane accidents.
- Critiqued estimates of lost earnings and benefits prepared for a group of plaintiff's claiming wrongful termination from a large grocery store chain.
- Analyzed a lost earnings estimate claimed by a medical malpractice expert witness resulting from his public suspension from a professional association.
- Critiqued the estimates of lost salary, household services, and funeral expenses associated with the death of an adult female who worked for a family-owned business.

- Calculated lost wages associated with a job site accident that resulted in a farm worker losing a limb.

Time Reporting and Billing Matters

- Performed a statistical analysis of time reporting behavior to assess whether a terminated employee's behavior fell within the bounds of normalcy for her peer group.
- Reviewed the time-keeping records for a non-profit agency in a dispute with the Department of Justice over the allocation of Federal Government-sponsored grant funds.
- Analyzed labor cost claims for a vendor in a prime/sub termination dispute (cash outlays, time sheet coding, hourly rates, and overtime).
- Investigated the billing practices of a consulting firm alleged to have fraudulently invoiced the Federal Government for employee reimbursable expenses.
- Investigated an employee embezzlement to determine if the embezzlement had any impact on the company's Federal Government customers. Also, investigated whether other fraudulent accounting activities had taken place at the company.
- Investigated fictitious invoices created by an employee and sent to a non-profit funded partially by government grants. Determined reimbursement amounts owing to each impacted grant.
